SB 508 Law Enforcement Explorers by Senator Hill

Defines "law enforcement explorer" as any person who is a current member of a law enforcement agency's explorer post and who is performing basic law enforcement functions under the direction of a sworn officer and wearing a uniform that bears at least one patch that clearly identifies the law enforcement agency that he or she represents. Provides for reclassification of certain offenses of knowingly committing an assault or battery against law enforcement explorers. (See bill for details)
